BIRD'S ROOFS

Made In New England

The right way to buy roofing is to know it is weather-proof, water-tight, durable, and good-looking before you buy it.

You take the guess out of buying roofs when you buy this way:

Explain to your nearest Bird Roof dealer the kind of building you are to re-roof or build.
Next, get the dealer to tell you of buildings near you covered with Bird Roofs.

If Paroid is the roofing you need, New England is dotted with Paroid Roofs — many have stood wear and weather for more than 20 years without repair.

Talk to the people who own Paroid protected buildings and learn its true economy.

Your dealer will unroll a good stretch of Paroid for you to see its bright, gray surface and feel its thickness, pliability, and firmness.

Paroid is an all-round quality roofing, especially adapted for low-pitch roofs, but good also for steep roofs or siding. It is cheapest in the long run.

Whether it is Bird's Paroid, Bird's Plain Slate-Surfaced Roll Roofings, Bird's Slate-Surfaced Designed Roofing (Art-Craft Tile Design or Shingle Design), or Bird's Shingles you need, the Bird dealer will show the kind of roofing best suited to your requirements. Bird's Roofs will not catch fire from falling sparks.

WESTERLY

There is no question but that the election in Westerly was one of the most closely contested in the history of the town. The polls were opened at 8 o'clock and from that time to noon the voters were present in great numbers.
The election was held in the town hall and the results were as follows:

Candidate	First	Second	Total
President	100	100	200
Vice President	100	100	200
Representative	100	100	200

The total of three Western men, Blag-oslav Gradišnik, James A. Williams and Sal-vatore P. Williams, charged with breaking the seal of a ballot box at Bradford, March 8, last, was returned to the court at Providence. The court did not act on election day.

SOME WOMEN KNOW THE SECRET OF BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR

LET THE SCALP BREATHE DURING WARM WEATHER — HAIR PETROLEE KEEPS SCALP LIKE A BABY'S

When women know the secret of the hair, they always look well. The secret is to keep the scalp cool and the hair healthy. The secret is to use Noonan's Hair Petrolee.

bringing out the natural beauty of the hair. A few applications soon makes the hair and scalp as healthy as a baby's and the change is almost apparent.
From the first, Barbers everywhere apply Noonan's Hair Petrolee for 15 cents an application or it may be obtained from drug and department stores by the bottle for $1.00 or from the manufacturer, T. Noonan & Sons, 31 Portland Street, Boston.

Mr. Troy said he had told his advisors to ask the republican members of the general assembly whether the statements he attributed to Judge Barrows were true.

He further stated that if any unfortunate conclusion had been drawn from his words, it was because of a garbled account of a newspaper, whose editor had shown personal animosity toward him.

Chief Justice Sweetland said the case might be reopened.

Mr. Rev. Bishop Perry presided at the convocation of the Episcopal churches for Washington and Kent counties, held in Christ Episcopal church, Westerly, with all the churches in the two counties represented. Reports from committees on social service, world-wide church work, and religious education were heard, and the committees asked to continue their work. A supper was served at six to the delegates by the ladies' guild of the church. Besides the bishop, the speakers were: Rev. Charles A. Haslam of Rhode Island, Rev. J. H. Meador of Rhode Island, Rev. J. H. Meador of

Rhode Island, Rev. J. H. Meador of Rhode Island.

Westerly played a scoreless tie game of football with La Salle, of Providence, on the local field, Monday afternoon. The ball was in Westerly's territory most of the game, but fumbles marred La Salle's chances to score. La Salle advanced the ball to their opponent's line twice, while Westerly could reach La Salle territory but once. Two years ago Westerly defeated the Providence team 13-0.

The Roberts brothers, Ryan and Whaley, excellent for La Salle, and Hoxie and Haas for Westerly High School.

Judge Edward M. Burke held a session of the Western probate court Tuesday afternoon, in the town hall building.

The will of Elizabeth Day was admitted to probate and Jeanne Keith Day was confirmed as executrix. Bond $1,500.

Inventory was received in the estate of Thomas McWeeny and ordered recorded.

AGRICULTURAL INTERESTS

SCRATCHING FOR FEED GIVES HENS EXERCISE

During the spring season fowls having free range get abundant exercise, but during the cold season many hens suffer from lack of exercise. Close confinement without exercise is not conducive to getting the best results from a flock.
Although the feed provided may be the best, for fowls soon grow too fat to lay.
It is almost impossible to give laying hens that are confined too much exercise.

The fowls may be encouraged to exercise in various ways, such as suspending cabbage heads, beets, etc., so that the birds have to jump for the scraps. The scraps may be scattered in the litter, the litter being from four to eight inches deep, and may consist of straw (either cut or whole), hay, leaves, buckwheat hulls, shredded corn fodder, or any like convenient material. The hens should be kept hungry enough so that they will work diligently all day for the scraps.

Remember that eggs produced by the backyard flock cost very little, as the fowls are fed largely upon waste materials.

Mrs. Frank T. Rhoad and son are guests of friends on Fisher's Island this week.

A republican rally was held here Monday evening in Columbus hall at which Congressman Richard P. Freeman was the speaker. Henry A. Stahl of Pawcatuck presided and there was music by the Noank band. Prior to the rally a street parade led by the band and with the usual accompaniment of red fire was an important feature.

By keeping a backyard poultry flock the family would not only help in reducing the cost of living but would have eggs of a quality and freshness often difficult to obtain.

Remember that eggs produced by the
backyard flock cost very little, as the
fowls are fed largely upon waste materials.

The Young People's league will hold its first autumn meeting in the vestry of the Congregational church Sunday evening
